GRILL FLAME

CLASSIFICATION GUIDE

SECTION A. () GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS (U)

1. () Purpose: To provide instructions and guidance on the classification of information in the Special Access Program for Project GRILL FLAME.

2. () Authority: This guide is issued under the provisions of Chapter II, Section 4, DOD 5200.1R, dated December, 1978. This guide constitutes authority, and may be cited as the basis for classification, regrading, or declassification of information and materiel involved in Project GRILL FLAME. Classification required by application of this guide is classified by the Director, Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA).

3. () Office of Primary Responsibility: Inquires concerning content and interpretation should be addressed to:

Director, Defense Intelligence Agency
ATTN: DIA/DT
Washington, DC 20301

4. () Classification Recommendations: Recommendations for changes to this guide should be documented and forwarded through appropriate channels to DIA at the address indicated in paragraph 3, above. Possible reasons for modifying this guide include:

Changes or progress obtained in the effort, scientific or technological changes in the state-of-the-art, or impractical requirements imposed by the guide. Until a final decision is issued by DIA, the items of information involved shall be protected at the higher of either the current classification or the recommended change. For recommended upgradings, use the marking, "TENTATIVE" followed by the appropriate classification. All users of this guide are encouraged to assist in improving and maintaining its currency and adequacy. Advances in the state-of-the-art which are not covered by this classification guide, and which offer possibilities of an increased national defense advantage, should be tentatively classified SECRET. This security classification guide is primarily concerned with DOD involvement in Remote Viewing, Psychokinesis, and other Psychoenergetic processes. The overall classification of the project is SECRET, classified by DIA, review on 1 May 1999, pursuant to the provisions of DOD 5200.1R, 2-301-C(5).

5. () Application, Reproduction, and Dissemination: Authority is granted to make reproductions and extracts or selections of portions of this guide for application by specific groups involved in GRILL FLAME, including industrial activities, upon notification of the applicable Security Coordinator. Copies of separate guides issued to operating activities in application of this guide shall be sent to DIA. No information concerning this program will be
